writing coaching

When working on a book-length project or other sizable writing piece, it's easy to get stuck when working alone. Ideas get jumbled. Writer's block kicks in. Self-doubt takes over.

Working with a writing coach allows you to overcome many of the common barriers we face when writing. Having a professional in your back pocket to talk out ideas and review your pages can mean the difference between finishing a project and it gathering virtual dust on your computer for years to come.

I offer writing coaching services that focus on:

- voice + tone clarity
- developmental + substantive editing
- accountability + creative support

Here's what it looks like to work with me:

- 2 x 50 min private coaching session/month
- 4 hours of developmental editing and substantive feedback
- email support as needed

Investment: $500/month with a minimum 3 month commitment

"Parrish stood by me as I opened up my vulnerable space and listened to me when I had doubts. She re-assured me when I was confused and gave me space and time to unfold the truth in my work. I now understand what it means to write from my heart, thanks to her guidance. She's the real deal when it came down to feedback – no fluff – told me like it was and always gave me a clear reason for her edits and suggestions. Every small celebration with me comforted my uncertainties and fed my soul with inspiration and motivation to continue. Parrish is truly one of a kind!" ~ Shalini Gambhir
